THE ECHO

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1950, affectionately dedicate the Echo to one who has been of invaluable assistance to us as a teacher, an adviser, and a friend. Her sympathetic personality, her ability, and her charm have endeared her to students and faculty alike.

ROSLEIGH MARIE SMITH

We Americans say, "What is the pay-off?" The pay-off for the teachers and the headmaster each year is the pleasure of seeing the Seniors ready to go out into the larger world of college, prepared to represent worthily the homes and the school which have helped them to grow. The Class of 1950 pays off handsomely. At graduation we find you attractive, intelligent, interesting, friendly, reliable young women whom we have enjoyed knowing and of whom we shall always be both proud and fond. This is the pay-off—to see you today and tomorrow, making the most of yourselves, giving the best of yourselves.

Evolution of the Senior Class

Once upon a time, many, many years ago, when the world was still young and everything was much bigger than it is now, we were thirteen sweet little girls. Every day our Mommies took us—beribboned—to kindergarten where we sang about “rocks and rills,” were read stories about bowls of porridge, and had Rest Hour.

By the stone age, however, we could read pretty well, an achievement which greatly aided the digestion of the Bobbsey Twins and The Wizard of Oz. But soon they were “kid stuff,” and Nancy Drew, Superman, and Donald Duck became our chief fare . . . except, of course, for the more intellectual girls who read Classic Comics.

Still pigtailed, we wrestled, came home with multi-colored bruises, and jumped rope. (Some of us could never come in the “back door”). Hanging from trees, we bemoaned Charles Darwin’s theory of evolution, and the fact that we were no longer blessed with tails.

And then, a century or so later, we learned to face life with Portia—and made the marvelous discovery that life is not over for the woman past thirty-five. We also went to dancing school. (The second year, there were even boys to dance with.)

When we were twelve, we went to our first formal, and had a little difficulty with our décolletage. At the same time, since Uncle Don had long ago disappeared from the air waves, we galloped over the plains with faithful Tonto at our sides and spent hours paving the way for later high blood pressure with the Shadow and Inner Sanctum. (Editor’s note: You see, our generation didn’t have television.)

Then, suddenly, around the age of thirteen we changed.

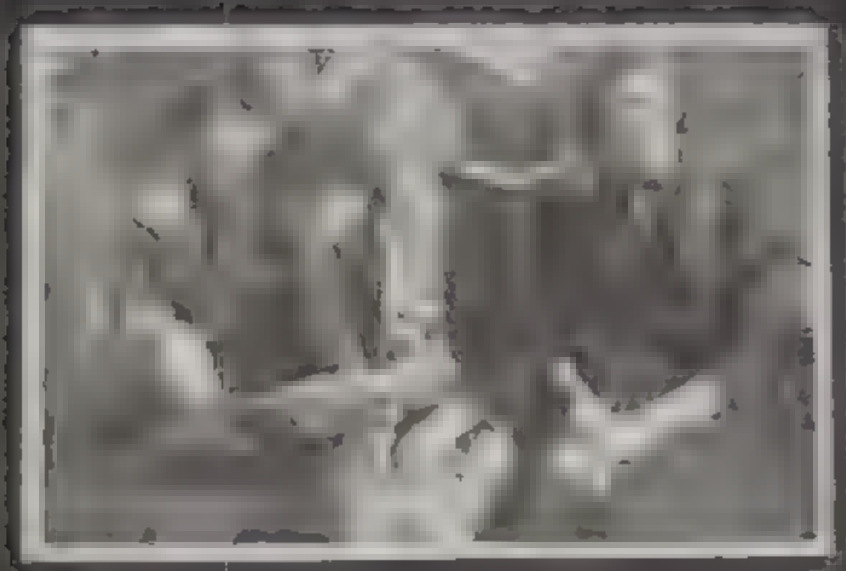

Telephones! Pajama Parties! ! Spin the Bottle! ! ! We all had mouths full of metal, and every day at lunch we lost our retainers and had to go into the kitchen to rescue them.

Movie stars like Alan Ladd, Dennis Morgan, and Errol Flynn lined our scrapbooks. We sobbed over Bambi and Dumbo.

In school, we had “posture pictures” taken! And, one of us—asked by her father what she had learned in school—replied, “When one has three sure tricks in her hand, and her partner has already opened with two no trump, she will arouse that partner’s disapproval if she passes.”

Then, college catalogues well perused, a new age dawned; we became Seniors and got our driving licenses. The Christmas Dance, perennial social event, inspired diets (which needed no inspiration).

But, in spite of such frivolity, we are much concerned with worldly problems—Cornell, Yale, Taft, and the Brooklyn Dodgers—and shall one day emerge, serious and dignified, into an adult world.

The class of 1950 welcomes as a fellow alumna Mrs. Foshay who this June leaves the School after thirty years of service as a teacher, during seventeen of which she has been Chairman of the Lower School. Joining the Kindergarten staff in 1920, she shortly moved to Grade Two, and then in 1927 to Grade Three where she has preferred to remain these twenty-two years. During her long period of employment Mrs. Foshay has been guide and instructor for about five hundred boys and girls, and friend and adviser for their fathers and mothers. As Chairman she has contributed, to the School as a whole and to her colleagues in particular, not only administrative ability and integrity but good sense and cordiality.

Mrs. Foshay will be affectionately remembered by pupils, parents, and staff members for several outstanding personal qualities. To her pupils she has given enthusiasm and skill as an instructor, gentleness and firmness as a disciplinarian, love and understanding as a sort of foster parent, to parents she has offered wisdom and patience and kindness, which, part of her nature, were enhanced by her own experience as a mother; to faculty associates she has been a constant friend and ready hostess, generously providing encouragement and hospitality. As she now drops official duties to devote herself to friends and family, Mrs. Foshay should feel the deep satisfaction of having enriched the lives and earned the regard of all those children and adults with whom she has worked and played at Rye Country Day School.

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT

WE the class of 1950, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of this life, do make, publish, and declare this to be our last WILL and TESTAMENT as follows, hereby revoking all other former wills by us at any time made.

First, after our lawful debts are paid —

KATHY ADLER leaves her passion for fashion.

BARBARA BEEBE leaves her wanderlust.

CHARLOTTE BEEBE leaves her varied and frequent crushes.

BARBARA BRIGGIN leaves a smile that should make any sourpuss change his nature.

GINNY EMERY leaves her note-free speeches to the next nervous speaker

JO FARIS leaves behind the title 'new senior' which she has heard so often.

VIVIEN GOODMAN leaves an assorted collection of misspelled French verbs in used condition.

GRETA HANDLER leaves her worn-out calorie chart — gladly.

ANITA HUMMEL leaves her many methods of getting the family car (to those who need them).

PENNY KIMBALL leaves resounding echoes of her silver bracelets.

ANNA McCANN leaves her Princeton boys, but not for keeps.

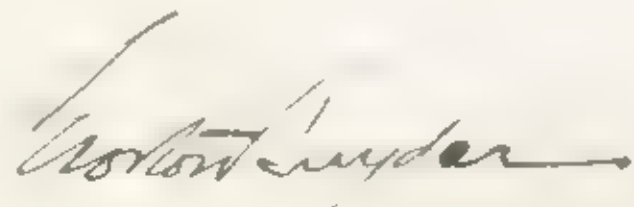

CLARE SEWALL leaves a ragged sail and thanks the Maine Coast for its strong winds.

JEAN TREMBLE leaves her knitting mania to the next "stitch happy" student.

WE hereby appoint Mr. Laboratory Smith to be executor of this our last WILL AND TESTAMENT.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto subscribed our names, the seventh day of May in the year one thousand, nine hundred and fifty.

Witnesses:

NOTICE: Do not write anything below this line as it may cause the will to be void
